Butlers Court School

Behaviour Policy

Our Butlers Court family nurtures kind, resilient, ambitious and curious children. Our caring environment supports well-being and self-belief, encouraging everyone to flourish. Through a wide range of experiences and opportunities, every child has the chance to shine, developing a love of learning and prepared for the ever-changing world and a future of possibilities.

1. Aims

This policy aims to:

- Create a positive culture that promotes excellent behaviour, ensuring that all pupils have the opportunity to learn in a calm, safe and supportive environment
- Establish a whole-school approach to maintaining high standards of behaviour that reflect the values of the school
- Outline the expectations and consequences of behaviour
- Provide a consistent approach to behaviour management that is applied equally to all pupils
- Define what we consider to be unacceptable behaviour, including bullying and discrimination

Our Butlers Court School Values:

Honesty, Responsibility, Respect, Kindness, Resilience, Tolerance

Our Butlers Court School Rules:

We are kind and show respect

We are safe

We try our best

2. Legislation, statutory requirements and guidance

This policy is based on legislation and guidance from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- Behaviour in schools: advice for headteachers and school staff
- Preventing and tackling bullying: advice for headteachers, staff and governing bodies
- Searching, screening and confiscation: advice for schools
- The Equality Act 2010
- Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSIE)
- Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement
- Restrictive interventions, including the use of reasonable force, in schools
- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school
- Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice
- Sharing nudes and semi-nudes: advice for education settings working with children and young people

In addition, this policy is based on:

- Section 175 of the Education Act 2002, which outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of its pupils
- Sections 88 to 94 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which requires schools to regulate pupils' behaviour and publish a behaviour policy and written statement of behaviour principles, and gives schools the authority to confiscate pupils' property
- DfE guidance explaining that maintained schools must publish their behaviour policy online

3. Definitions

Misbehaviour is defined as:

- Disruption in lessons or playtimes
- Non-completion of classwork or homework
- Poor attitude
- Incorrect uniform

Serious misbehaviour is defined as:

- Repeated breaches of the school rules
- Any form of child-on-child abuse, including but may not be limited to:
    - Bullying
    - Physical abuse
- Vandalism
- Theft
- Fighting
- Racist, sexist, homophobic or discriminatory language or behaviour

4. Bullying

Bullying is defined as behaviour by an individual or group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally.

Bullying can involve an imbalance of power between the perpetrator and the victim. This could involve perpetrators having control over the relationship, which makes it difficult for those they bully to defend themselves. The imbalance of power may be physical, psychological, derive from an intellectual imbalance, or by having access to the support of a group, or the capacity to socially isolate.

Bullying is therefore:

- Deliberately hurtful
- Repeated, often over a period of time
- Difficult to defend against

Bullying can include:

TYPE OF BULLYING	DEFINITION
Emotional	Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting

Physical	Hitting, kicking, pushing, taking another's belongings, any use of violence
Prejudice-based and discriminatory, including: › Racial › Faith-based › Gendered (sexist) › Homophobic/biphobic › Transphobic › Disability-based	Taunts, gestures, graffiti or physical abuse focused on a particular characteristic (e.g. gender, race, sexuality) or perceived characteristic
Sexual	Explicit sexual remarks, display of sexual material, sexual gestures, unwanted physical attention, comments about sexual reputation or performance, non-consensual making or sharing of nudes or semi-nudes (including those generated using AI) or inappropriate touching
Direct or indirect verbal	Name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing
Cyber-bullying	Bullying that takes place online, such as through social networking sites, messaging apps, gaming sites, devices or via images, audio, video or written content, including content generated or altered using AI

5. Responding to behaviour

Classroom management

All staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the school.

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment that encourages pupils to be engaged
- Display and refer to our school rules
- Develop a positive relationship with pupils, which may include:
    - Greeting pupils in the morning/at the start of lessons
    - Establishing clear routines
    - Quality First Teaching to engage all children in their learning
    - Movement and/or active breaks
    - Communicating expectations of behaviour in ways other than verbally
    - Highlighting and promoting good behaviour
    - Concluding the day positively and starting the next day afresh
    - Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption
    - Share a child's positive behaviour with colleagues and encourage them to give praise
    - Using positive reinforcement – 'catch them being good'.
    - Celebrate those that have gone that 'one step further'.

Safeguarding

Butlers Court School recognises that changes in behaviour may be an indicator that a pupil is in need of help or protection.

We will consider whether a pupil's inappropriate behaviour may be linked to them suffering, or being likely to suffer, significant harm.

Where this may be the case, we will follow our child protection and safeguarding policy, and consider whether pastoral support, an early help intervention or a referral to children's social care is appropriate.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information.

Responding to good behaviour

When a pupil's behaviour meets or goes above and beyond the expected behaviour standard, staff will recognise it with positive recognition and reward. This provides an opportunity for all staff to reinforce the school's culture and ethos.

Positive reinforcements and rewards will be applied clearly and fairly to reinforce the routines, expectations and norms of the school's behaviour culture.

Positive behaviour will be rewarded with:

- Verbal Praise
- Housepoints
- Achievement Certificates in weekly assembly
- Special mention in the school 'Golden Book' read out in assembly
- A visit to the headteacher for a Headteacher Award sticker
- Communicating praise to parents via a phone call, email or catch up at the end of the day
- Positions of responsibility or being entrusted with a particular task
- Whole year group rewards such as a popular activity for all

Responding to inappropriate behaviour

When a pupil's behaviour falls below the standard that can reasonably be expected of them, staff will respond in order to restore a calm and safe learning environment, and to prevent recurrence of inappropriate behaviour.

Staff will endeavour to create a predictable environment by always challenging behaviour that falls short of the standards, and by responding in a consistent, fair and proportionate manner, so pupils know with certainty that inappropriate behaviour will always be addressed.

De-escalation techniques, including the use of agreed phrases that refer to the school rules or Zones of Regulation, can be used to help prevent further behaviour issues arising.

All pupils will be treated equitably under the policy, with any factors that contributed to the behavioural incident identified and taken into account.

When giving behaviour sanctions, staff will also consider what support could be offered to a pupil to help them to meet behaviour standards in the future.

The school may use 1 or more of the following sanctions in response to unacceptable behaviour:

- A verbal reprimand and reminder of the expectations of behaviour

- Sending the pupil to the other year group class
- Setting of written tasks such as an account of their behaviour
- Expecting work to be completed at home, or at break or lunchtime
- Detention at break or lunchtime
- Loss of privileges – for instance, the loss of a prized responsibility
- School-based jobs such as tidying a classroom
- Referring the pupil to a senior member of staff
- Letter or phone call home to parents/carers
- Creating a Positive Intervention Plan
- Removal of the pupil from the classroom
- Suspension
- Permanent exclusion, in the most serious of circumstances (Please refer to our exclusions policy for more information)

Personal circumstances of the pupil will be taken into account when choosing sanctions, and decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis, but with regard to the impact on perceived fairness.

	Types of Inappropriate behaviour	Consequences
1	• Not abiding by school rules • Being silly, noisy • Disrupting the learning in the classroom • Moving without permission • Calling out • Interrupting pupils • Ignoring instructions • Pushing in line • Rough play on the playground	Class Teacher • Parental Involvement from class teachers at the earliest opportunity. • Time out or child moved and to return when they feel ready and are regulated. • Separation from the rest of the class group. • Writing a letter of apology. • Completing unfinished work or other task at playtime. • Short detention. • Phase Leader or Deputy Headteacher involvement.
2 Record on CPOMS	• Repeated Level 1 behaviour • Not abiding by school rules • Not responding to an adult's request. • Being more disruptive, • Deliberately disturbing the learning in the classroom • Accidental damage or hurting someone through careless behaviour. • Rude, off-hand comments. • Undirected swearing • Deliberately annoying other children. • Writing on others' books • Taking property without permission • Throwing objects • Hurting another child	Assistant Headteacher • Fixed period separation from class • Fixed period internal exclusion. • Exclusion from playground sessions with peers • Daily / weekly target sheets • Child spoken to by the Assistant Headteacher • Parents informed of incident & sanctions

	• Physical retaliation or harm to other children. • Wilful damage of school or another pupil's property • Leaving class without permission. • Repeated refusal to do set tasks • Harmful / offensive name-calling • Directed swearing • Bullying
3 Record on CPOMS	• Repeated Level 2 behaviour • Repeatedly leaving classroom without permission. • Fighting and physical harm to other children. • Deliberately throwing or breaking objects • Challenge to authority. • Verbal abuse to any staff. • Vandalism • Stealing • Repeated bullying behaviour. • Homophobic or racist language • Continual classroom aggravation and prevention of other children learning • Extreme dangerous behaviour or violence • Physical abuse to any staff • Persistent bullying	Headteacher or Deputy Headteacher • Child spoken to by Deputy Headteacher or Headteacher • Telephone call, email or meeting with parents by the end of day • Internal exclusion • Possibility of an immediate suspension - up to 5 days • Involvement of outside agencies • Written confirmation to parents

Restorative Practice and Reflection following Inappropriate Behaviour

Restorative conversations are designed to facilitate reflection, resolution, and learning through guided discussion involving all parties affected by the behaviour.
Restorative approaches focus on resolving conflict and repairing harm by:

- Talking to everyone involved and reflecting on how they behaved.
- Getting them to explain their feelings and reasons for behaving the way they are
- How they could they could behave in a similar situation in the future, referring to the Zones of Regulation

Staff can use restorative practice for any behaviour incident, although it's most commonly used as an anti-bullying strategy.
By asking a set of questions, the goal is to reach a clear understanding of everyone's feelings, and find a resolution that everyone can agree to.

Procedures for Implementing Restorative Conversations

- Identifying Incidents
  Consider incidents that would benefit from a restorative response as reported by staff or pupils.
- Preparing for the Conversation
  Outline the steps to prepare for a restorative conversation, including pre-meeting with individuals involved.

- Conducting the Conversation
  Introduce everyone and explain the purpose of the meeting, followed by a guided discussion where each participant expresses their perspective, feelings, and suggestions for moving forward.
- Post-Conversation Actions
  Describe the follow-up actions, such as documenting outcomes, agreements made, and monitoring the situation to ensure resolutions are upheld.

6. Roles and responsibilities

6.1 The governing board

The governing board is responsible for:

- Reviewing and approving the written statement of behaviour principles (appendix 1)
- Reviewing this behaviour policy in conjunction with the headteacher
- Monitoring the policy's effectiveness
- Holding the headteacher to account for its implementation
- Ensuring appropriate systems for filtering and monitoring, and cyber security are in place on school devices and networks
- Ensuring online safety is a running and interrelated theme while devising and implementing the school's approach to safeguarding and related policies and procedures, including understanding safety considerations and legal responsibilities where the school uses generative AI

6.2 The headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for:

- Reviewing this policy in conjunction with the full governing board
- Routinely engaging with pupils, parents/carers and staff on setting and maintaining the behaviour culture and an environment where everyone feels safe and supported
- Giving due consideration to the school's statement of behaviour principles (appendix 1)
- Approving this policy
- Ensuring that the school environment encourages positive behaviour
- Ensuring that staff deal effectively with poor behaviour
- Monitoring that the policy is implemented by staff consistently with all groups of pupils
- Ensuring that all staff understand the behavioural expectations and the importance of maintaining them
- Providing new staff with a clear induction into the school's behavioural culture to ensure they understand its rules and routines, and how best to support all pupils to participate fully
- Offering appropriate training in behaviour management, and the impact of special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) and mental health needs on behaviour, to any staff who require it, so they can fulfil their duties set out in this policy

- Ensuring this policy works alongside the safeguarding policy to offer pupils both sanctions and support when necessary
- Ensuring that the data from the behaviour log is reviewed regularly, to make sure that no groups of pupils are being disproportionately impacted by this policy (see section 13.1)

6.3 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Creating a calm and safe environment for pupils
- Establishing and maintaining clear boundaries of acceptable pupil behaviour
- Implementing the behaviour policy consistently and fairly
- Communicating the school's expectations, routines, values and standards through teaching behaviour and in every interaction with pupils
- Modelling expected behaviour and positive relationships
- Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils, including providing additional support to meet the school's behaviour expectations where a pupil has SEND
- Recognising hidden stressors for vulnerable pupils, such as young carers or looked-after children, to ensure empathetic and supportive responses to their behaviour
- Being alert to new and emerging online harms, including risks associated with AI, misogynistic or misandrist content, and financially motivated sexual extortion (sometimes called 'sextortion')
- Considering the impact of their own behaviour on the school culture and how they can uphold school rules and expectations
- Using de-escalation techniques and positive behaviour management strategies to try to minimise and prevent the need for restrictive interventions
- Recording behaviour incidents promptly in line with this policy
- Challenging pupils to meet the school's expectations
- Meet and greet children with respect and kindness
- Refer to our 3 school rules and the Zones of Regulation in their daily conversations with children
- Never walk past or ignore pupils who are failing to meet expectations
- Follow up all behaviour including restorative conversations and communication with parents
- Teach behaviour as part of the weekly curriculum
- Plan lessons that engage, challenge and meet the needs of all pupils
- Share examples of children's positive behaviour with colleagues and encourage them to praise the child
- Recognise those children who have gone 'one step further'.
- Deal with all poor behaviour appropriately – 'Praise in Public, Remind in Private'
- Behaviour is managed well where adults know their classes and develop positive relationships with all pupils - staff understand that we don't make a child behave better by making them feel worse.

6.4 Parents and carers

Parents and carers, where possible, should:

- Get to know the school's behaviour policy and reinforce it at home where appropriate
- Support their child in adhering to the school's behaviour policy
- Inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour
- Celebrate their child's successes
- Discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher promptly
- Take part in any pastoral work following misbehaviour (for example, attending reviews of specific behaviour interventions)
- Raise any concerns about the management of behaviour with the school directly, while continuing to work in partnership with the school
- Take part in the life of the school and its culture

The school will endeavour to build a positive relationship with parents and carers by keeping them informed about developments in their child's behaviour and the school's policy, and working in collaboration with them to tackle behavioural issues.

6.5 Pupils

Pupils will be made aware of the following during their induction into the behaviour culture:

- Behave in an orderly and sensible way
- Refer to the Zones of Regulation
- Show respect to members of staff and each other
- In class, make it possible for all pupils to learn
- Move quietly around the school
- Treat the school buildings and school property with respect
- Wear the correct uniform at all times
- Accept sanctions when given
- Refrain from behaving in a way that brings the school into disrepute, including when outside school or online

Pupils will be supported to meet the behaviour standards and will be provided with repeated induction sessions wherever appropriate.

Pupils will be supported to develop an understanding of the school's behaviour policy and wider culture.

Pupils will be asked to give feedback on their experience of the behaviour culture to support the evaluation, improvement and implementation of the behaviour policy.

Extra support and induction will be provided for pupils who are mid-phase arrivals.

7. School behaviour curriculum

Pupils are expected to:

- Behave in an orderly and self-controlled way

- Show respect to members of staff and each other
- Challenge and report behaviour that is discriminatory, harmful or disrespectful towards others, including behaviour influenced by prejudice, misogyny, misandry or harmful online content
- In class, make it possible for all pupils to learn
- Move quietly around the school
- Treat the school buildings and school property with respect
- Wear the correct uniform at all times
- Accept sanctions when given
- Refrain from behaving in a way that brings the school into disrepute, including when outside school or online

Where appropriate and reasonable, adjustments may be made to routines within the curriculum to ensure all pupils can meet behavioural expectations in the curriculum.

8. Mobile phones

- See mobile phone policy

9. Responding to behaviour

9.1 Classroom management

Teaching and support staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the school.

They will:

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment that encourages pupils to be engaged
- Display the behaviour rules
- Develop a positive relationship with pupils, which may include:
    - Greeting pupils in the morning/at the start of lessons
    - Establishing clear routines
    - Quality First Teaching to engage all children in their learning
    - Movement and/or active breaks
    - Communicating expectations of behaviour in ways other than verbally
    - Highlighting and promoting good behaviour
    - Concluding the day positively and starting the next day afresh
    - Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption
    - Share a child's positive behaviour with colleagues and encourage them to give praise
    - Using positive reinforcement – 'catch them being good'.
    - Celebrate those that have gone that 'one step further'.

9.2 Safeguarding

The school recognises that:

- Changes in behaviour may be an indicator that a pupil is in need of help or protection
- Specific circumstances, such as being a young carer, looked-after child, or living in a vulnerable household, can significantly affect behaviour

We will consider whether a pupil's misbehaviour may be linked to them suffering, or being likely to suffer, significant harm. Staff will follow the school's child protection policy and speak to the designated safeguarding lead (or deputy).

Where this may be the case, we will follow our child protection and safeguarding policy, and consider whether pastoral support, universal services, community-based early help, targeted early help or a referral to children's social care is appropriate.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information.

9.3 Responding to good behaviour

When a pupil's behaviour meets or goes above and beyond the expected behaviour standard, staff will recognise it with positive recognition and reward. This provides an opportunity for all staff to reinforce the school's culture and ethos.

Positive reinforcements and rewards will be applied clearly and fairly to reinforce the routines, expectations and norms of the school's behaviour culture.

Positive behaviour will be rewarded with:

- Verbal Praise
- Housepoints
- Achievement Certificates in weekly assembly
- Special mention in the school 'Golden Book' read out in assembly
- A visit to the headteacher for a Headteacher Award sticker
- Communicating praise to parents via a phone call, email or catch up at the end of the day
- Positions of responsibility or being entrusted with a particular task
- Whole year group rewards such as a popular activity for all

9.4 Responding to misbehaviour

When a pupil's behaviour falls below the standard that can reasonably be expected of them, staff will respond in order to restore a calm and safe learning environment, and to prevent recurrence of misbehaviour.

Staff will endeavour to create a predictable environment by always challenging behaviour that falls short of the standards, and by responding in a consistent, fair and proportionate manner, so pupils know with certainty that misbehaviour will always be addressed.

De-escalation techniques, including the use of pre-arranged scripts and phrases, can be used to help prevent further behaviour issues arising, including situations where staff may need to use a restrictive intervention. See our policy on the use of physical restraint policy for more detail on prevention and de-escalation strategies.

All pupils will be treated equitably under the policy, with any factors that contributed to the behavioural incident identified (e.g. whether a pupil has specific vulnerabilities) and taken into account.

When giving behaviour sanctions, staff will also consider what support could be offered to a pupil to help them to meet behaviour standards in the future.

The school may use 1 or more of the following sanctions in response to unacceptable behaviour:

- A verbal reprimand and reminder of the expectations of behaviour
- Sending the pupil out of the class
- Setting of written tasks such as an account of their behaviour
- Expecting work to be completed at home, or at break or lunchtime
- Detention at break or lunchtime, or after school
- Loss of privileges – for instance, the loss of a prized responsibility
- School-based community service, such as tidying a classroom
- Referring the pupil to a senior member of staff
- Letter or phone call home to parents/carers
- Creating a Positive Intervention Plan (PIP)
- Agreeing a behaviour contract
- Removal of the pupil from the classroom
- Suspension
- Permanent exclusion, in the most serious of circumstances

Personal circumstances of the pupil will be taken into account when choosing sanctions. Where appropriate, staff will liaise with our SLT to help determine an appropriate sanction. Decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis, but with regard to the impact on perceived fairness.

9.5 Restrictive interventions, including use of reasonable force

Our approach to restrictive interventions follows the DfE's latest guidance on restrictive interventions.

Restrictive interventions are used to prevent, restrict, or subdue movement of the body or part of the body of a pupil. It describes both physical and non-physical actions aimed to restrain pupils in different ways.

Our staff understand that any form of force or restraint carries a risk of physical and psychological harm, so we always avoid using these measures where possible.

9.5.1 Reasonable force

Reasonable force covers a broad range of actions used by staff that involve a degree of physical contact to restrain pupils, using no more force than is needed for the least amount of time, the application of which will depend on the circumstances.

The school does not have a 'no contact' policy and will not grant any requests by parents or staff not to use reasonable force and/or other restrictive interventions.

All members of staff have a legal power to use reasonable force in certain situations, to prevent a pupil from:

- Hurting themselves or others
- Committing a criminal offence
- Damaging property
- Causing disorder among pupils, in or out of lessons

Reasonable force must:

- Always be used as a last resort
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never be used as a form of punishment
- Never involve restraining a pupil in a way that affects their airway, breathing or circulation, for example by covering their nose and/or mouth or applying pressure to their neck or abdomen
- Never be used if the pupil is on the ground. If a pupil is unintentionally held on the ground, staff should release their hold or move into a safer alternative or standing position as quickly as possible

Staff who are likely to need to use reasonable force and/or other restrictive interventions are adequately trained in its safe and lawful use and in preventative strategies.

When considering using reasonable force, staff should, in considering the risks, carefully recognise any specific vulnerabilities of the pupil, including SEND, mental health needs or medical conditions.

Please see our restrictive intervention policy for more information.

9.5.2 Seclusion

Seclusion is a non-disciplinary intervention that keeps a pupil confined to a place away from others and prevents them from leaving, for the safety of that pupil and/or others.

We only use seclusion as a safety measure when a pupil is experiencing high levels of emotional or behavioural dysregulation. Seclusion is not used as a threat or punishment and is not a disciplinary response to deliberate or wilful misbehaviour.

During seclusion:

- The pupil will be secluded in a safe place that does not feel threatening or intimidating to them for example The Bubble
- The pupil will be supervised at all times, by at least 1 member of staff

As soon as the immediate risk of harm has reduced, the pupil will be allowed to leave.

9.5.3. Recording and reporting requirements

Staff have a legal duty to record and report all:

- Significant incidents involving force
- Seclusion incidents
- Restraint incidents

Please refer to our Use of physical restraint policy for more information on this legal duty.

7.6 Searching, screening and confiscation

Searching, screening and confiscation is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation.

Confiscation

Any prohibited items (listed in section 3) found in a pupil's possession as a result of a search will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to the pupil.

We will also confiscate any item that is harmful or detrimental to school discipline. These items will be returned to pupils after discussion with senior leaders and parents/carers, if appropriate.

Searching a pupil

Searches will only be carried out by a member of staff who has been authorised to do so by the headteacher, or by the headteacher themselves.

Subject to the exception below, the authorised member of staff carrying out the search will be of the same sex as the pupil, and there will be another member of staff present as a witness to the search.

An authorised member of staff of a different sex to the pupil can carry out a search and/or can carry out a search without another member of staff as a witness if:

- The authorised member of staff carrying out the search reasonably believes there is risk that serious harm will be caused to a person if the search is not carried out as a matter of urgency; and
- In the time available, it is not reasonably practicable for the search to be carried out by a member of staff who is the same sex as the pupil; or
- It is not reasonably practicable for the search to be carried out in the presence of another member of staff

When an authorised member of staff conducts a search without a witness, they should immediately report this to another member of staff, and make sure a written record of the search is kept.

If the authorised member of staff considers a search to be necessary, but not required urgently, they will seek the advice of the headteacher, designated safeguarding lead (or deputy) or pastoral member of staff who may have more information about the pupil. During this time the pupil will be supervised and kept away from other pupils.

A search can be carried out if the authorised member of staff has reasonable grounds for suspecting that the pupil is in possession of a prohibited item or any item identified in the school rules for which a search can be made, or if the pupil has agreed (in which case the member of staff will ensure the pupil understands the reason for the search and how it will be conducted so that their agreement is informed).

An appropriate location for the search will be found. Where possible, this will be away from other pupils. The search will only take place on the school premises or where the member of staff has lawful control or charge of the pupil, for example on a school trip.

7.7 Child-on-child abuse

We recognise that children are capable of abusing other children. Abuse will never be tolerated or passed off as “banter”, “just having a laugh”, “part of growing up”, or “boys being boys”, as this can lead to a culture of unacceptable behaviours, misogyny, and an unsafe environment for pupils.

All child-on-child abuse is unacceptable and will be taken seriously.

Most cases of pupils hurting other pupils will be dealt with under this policy.

Where allegations raise safeguarding concerns, this will be managed under our safeguarding policy. Our safeguarding policy contains further information on how we prevent and manage incidents of child-on-child abuse.

7.8 Off-site misbehaviour

Sanctions may be applied where a pupil has misbehaved off-site when representing the school. This means misbehaviour when the pupil is:

- Taking part in any school-organised or school-related activity (e.g. school trips)
- Travelling to or from school

- Wearing school uniform
- In any other way identifiable as a pupil of our school

Sanctions may also be applied where a pupil has misbehaved off-site, at any time, whether or not the conditions above apply, if the misbehaviour:

- Could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- Poses a threat to another pupil
- Could adversely affect the reputation of the school

Sanctions will only be given out on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of a staff member (e.g. on a school-organised trip).

7.9 Online misbehaviour

The school can issue behaviour sanctions to pupils for online misbehaviour when:

- It poses a threat or causes harm to another pupil
- It could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- It adversely affects the reputation of the school
- The pupil is identifiable as a member of the school

This includes harmful content created, altered or shared using artificial intelligence (AI), including nudes and semi-nudes.

Sanctions will only be given out on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of a staff member.

7.10 Suspected criminal behaviour

If a pupil is suspected of criminal behaviour, the school will make an initial assessment of whether to report the incident to the police only by gathering enough information to establish the facts of the case.

When establishing the facts, initial investigations will be fully documented and the school will endeavour to preserve any relevant evidence to hand over to the police.

If a decision is made to report the matter to the police, the headteacher make the report.

The school will not interfere with any police action taken. However, the school may continue to follow its own investigation procedure and enforce sanctions, as long as it does not conflict with police action.

If a report to the police is made, the designated safeguarding lead (DSL) will make a tandem report to children's social care, if appropriate.

7.11 Zero-tolerance approach to sexual harassment and sexual violence

The school will ensure that all incidents of sexual harassment and/or violence are met with a suitable response, and never ignored.

Pupils are encouraged to report anything that makes them uncomfortable, no matter how 'small' they feel it might be.

The school's response will be in line with our child protection and safeguarding policy.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information.

7.12 Malicious allegations

Where a pupil makes an allegation against a member of staff and that allegation is shown to have been a deliberate act to deceive or cause harm to the person subject of the allegation, the school will consider whether to discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

Where a pupil makes an allegation of sexual violence or sexual harassment against another pupil and that allegation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious, the school will consider whether to discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

In all cases where an allegation is determined to be unsubstantiated, unfounded, false or malicious, the school (in collaboration with the local authority designated officer (LADO), where relevant) will consider whether the pupil who made the allegation is in need of help, or the allegation may have been a cry for help. If so, a referral to children's social care may be appropriate.

The school will also consider the pastoral needs of staff and pupils accused of misconduct.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy and allegations against staff, and a statement of procedures for dealing with allegations of abuse against staff for more information on responding to allegations of abuse against staff or other pupils.

8. Serious sanctions

8.1 Detention

Pupils can be issued with detentions during break, or lunchtime.

When issuing a lunchtime detention, staff will allow reasonable time for the pupil to eat, drink and use the toilet.

The school will decide whether it is necessary to inform the pupil's parents/carers.

When imposing a detention, the school will consider whether there is any reasonable concern that doing so would compromise the pupil's safety.

8.2 Removal from classrooms

In response to serious or persistent breaches of this policy, the school may remove the pupil from the classroom for a limited time. Removal from the classroom is a serious disciplinary measure and distinct from seclusion, which is strictly non-disciplinary (see section 7.5 above for more detail on seclusion and its use).

Pupils who have been removed will continue to receive education under the supervision of a member of staff. This education will be meaningful, but it may differ from the mainstream curriculum.

Removal is a serious sanction and will only be used in response to serious misbehaviour. Staff will only remove pupils from the classroom once other behavioural strategies have been attempted, unless the behaviour is so extreme as to warrant immediate removal.

Removal can be used to:

- Maintain the safety of all pupils and to restore stability following an unreasonably high level of disruption
- Enable disruptive pupils to be taken to a place where education can be continued in a managed environment
- Allow the pupil to regain calm in a safe space

Pupils who have been removed from the classroom are supervised and staff have received Step On and Step Up training.

Pupils will not be removed from classrooms for prolonged periods of time without the explicit agreement of the headteacher.

Pupils should be reintegrated into the classroom as soon as it is appropriate and safe to do so. The school will consider what support is needed to help a pupil successfully reintegrate into the classroom and meet the expected standards of behaviour.

Parents/carers will be informed on the same day that their child is removed from the classroom.

The school will consider an alternative approach to behaviour management for pupils who are frequently removed from class, such as

- Use of Recharge room
- Use of teaching assistants
- Use of Positive Intervention Plans (PIP)
- Short-term behaviour chart
- Pupil referral units
- Multi-agency assessment

Staff will record all incidents of removal from the classroom on CPOMS, along with details of the incident that led to the removal, and any protected characteristics of the pupil.

8.3 Suspension and permanent exclusion

The headteacher can use suspension and permanent exclusion in response to serious incidents or in response to persistent poor behaviour which has not improved following in-school sanctions and interventions.

The decision to suspend or exclude will be made by the headteacher and only as a last resort.

Please refer to our exclusions policy for more information.

9. Responding to misbehaviour from pupils with SEND

9.1 Recognising the impact of SEND on behaviour

The school recognises that pupils' behaviour may be impacted by a special educational need or disability (SEND). Pupils with SEND may react to distressing or confusing situations by displaying behaviours which may be harmful to themselves and others. Pupils who have difficulty communicating verbally might show their needs and discomfort through their actions. Pupils with SEND may struggle to distinguish real content from AI-generated content or understand the consequences of online interactions.

The school will consider how a whole-school approach meets the needs of all pupils in the school, including pupils with SEND, so that everyone can feel they belong in the school community and high expectations are maintained for all pupils.

When incidents of misbehaviour arise, we will consider them in relation to a pupil's SEND, although we recognise that not every incident of misbehaviour will be connected to their SEND. Decisions on whether a pupil's SEND had an impact on an incident of misbehaviour will be made by the school on a case-by-case basis.

When dealing with misbehaviour from pupils with SEND, especially where their SEND affects their behaviour, the school will take its legal duties into account when making decisions about enforcing the behaviour policy. The legal duties include:

- Taking reasonable steps to avoid any substantial disadvantage to a disabled pupil being caused by the school's policies or practices (Equality Act 2010)

- Using our best endeavours to meet the needs of pupils with SEND (Children and Families Act 2014)

If a pupil has an education, health and care (EHC) plan, the provisions set out in that plan will be secured and the school will co-operate with the local authority and other bodies.

As part of meeting these duties, the school will anticipate, as far as possible, all likely triggers of misbehaviour, and put in place support, including behaviour support plans where appropriate, to prevent these from occurring.

We will utilise staff who know individual pupils with SEND well, to:

- Help identify and manage risk, such as trigger points when challenging behaviour is more likely to occur
- Develop proactive strategies to reduce the likelihood of restrictive interventions being used

We will also work with the pupil, their parents/carers and other professionals to develop prevention and de-escalation strategies.

Any preventative measures will take into account the specific circumstances and requirements of the pupil concerned.

- Short, planned movement breaks for a pupil with SEND who finds it difficult to sit still for long
- Adjusting seating plans to allow a pupil with visual or hearing impairment to sit in sight of the teacher
- Adjusting uniform requirements for a pupil with sensory issues or who has severe eczema
- Training for staff in understanding conditions such as autism
- Use of separation spaces (The Bubble or Recharge) where pupils can regulate their emotions during a moment of sensory overload

9.2 Adapting sanctions for pupils with SEND

When considering a behavioural sanction for a pupil with SEND, the school will consider whether:

- The pupil was unable to understand the rule or instruction
- The pupil was unable to act differently at the time as a result of their SEND
- The pupil was likely to behave aggressively due to their particular SEND

If the answer to any of these is ‘yes’, it may be unlawful for the school to sanction the pupil for the behaviour.

The school will then assess whether it is appropriate to use a sanction and if so, whether any reasonable adjustments need to be made to the sanction.

9.3 Considering whether a pupil displaying challenging behaviour may have unidentified SEND

The school’s special educational needs co-ordinator (SENCO) may evaluate a pupil who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

When acute needs are identified in a pupil, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. We will work with parents/carers to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

9.4 Pupils with an education, health and care (EHC) plan

The provisions set out in the EHC plan must be secured and the school will co-operate with the local authority and other bodies.

If the school has a concern about the behaviour of a pupil with an EHC plan, it will make contact with the local authority to discuss the matter. If appropriate, the school may request an emergency review of the EHC plan.

10. Supporting pupils following a sanction

Following a sanction, the school will consider strategies to help the pupil to understand how to improve their behaviour and meet the expectations of the school.

This could include:

- Reintegration meetings with the child, parents and class teacher
- Regular contact with the allocated senior member of staff
- Support from a Specialist Support Teacher
- A personalised behaviour plan with goals, targets, rewards and sanctions

12. Training

As part of their induction process, our staff are provided with regular training on managing behaviour, including training on:

- The safe and lawful use of reasonable force and/or other restrictive interventions
- The needs of the pupils at the school
- How SEND, mental health needs and personal circumstances can impact behaviour
- Trauma-informed practice and behaviour management
- Risks associated with use of generative AI
- Identifying and challenging extreme online misogynistic or misandrist content
- Behaviour management will also form part of continuing professional development.

13. Monitoring arrangements

13.1 Monitoring and evaluating behaviour

The school will collect data on the following:

- Behavioural incidents, including removal from the classroom using CPOMS
- Attendance, permanent exclusions and suspensions
- Use of pupil support units, off-site directions and managed moves
- Incidents involving restrictive intervention, including the use of reasonable force on CPOMS

13.2 Monitoring this policy

This behaviour policy will be reviewed by the headteacher and governing board annually.

The written statement of behaviour principles (appendix 1) will be reviewed and approved by the headteacher.

14. Links with other policies

This behaviour policy is linked to the following

- Exclusions policy
- Child protection and safeguarding policy
- Use of physical restraint
- Mobile phone policy

Autumn 2026

Review date: Autumn 2027

Appendix 1: written statement of behaviour principles

- Every pupil understands they have the right to feel safe, valued and respected, and to be able to learn free from the disruption of others
- All pupils, staff and visitors are free from any form of discrimination
- Staff and volunteers set an excellent example to pupils at all times
- Rewards and sanctions are used consistently by staff, in line with the behaviour policy
- Restrictive interventions, including reasonable force, are only used as a last resort, and in line with the behaviour policy
- The behaviour policy is understood by pupils and staff
- The exclusions policy explains that exclusions will only be used as a last resort, and outlines the processes involved in suspensions and exclusions
- Pupils are helped to take responsibility for their actions
- Families and carers are involved in the handling of behaviour incidents to foster good relationships between the school and pupils' home life

The governing board also emphasises that violence or threatening behaviour will not be tolerated in any circumstances.

This written statement of behaviour principles is reviewed and approved by the full governing board annually.
